SIX DAYS OF DISCOVERY / ONE SHARED JOURNEY

A journey, kept in small details.

For the streets we wandered, the tables we shared,
and the moments that made us pause.

THIS COPY BELONGS TO / YOUR NAMES

01 / OPENING NOTES

A note before we begin.

Dear future us,

This is where our journey becomes a story. Not a list of every place we visited, but a collection of the things we want to remember.

Replace this letter with your own introduction. Write about why you chose this trip, what you hoped to find and who was there beside you. Leave room for the surprises.

What did this journey change about the way you see a place, each other or yourself?

A face, a doorway, a first impression.

OUR OWN ADDITION

One thing we never travel without: _____

THE MOODBOARD

The feeling we followed.

A palette, a texture, a feeling.

Collect the images that capture how you imagined this journey.
After the trip, return to this page and notice what changed.

03 / FIELD NOTES — DAY 01

01 Arrival & first impressions

PLACE / DATE / WEATHER

The moment the journey became real.

Write a few lines about where the day began, what drew you in, and the detail you would like to remember.

DAY 01 / THE STORY

The first pause

Start with a scene.

Describe the place before you explain what happened. What could you hear? Where did the light fall? Who was with you?

Let one ordinary detail lead into the story. Add a conversation, a surprise or a moment that shifted the mood of the day.

WHAT SURPRISED US

Replace this with your favourite unexpected moment.

WHAT WE WOULD REPEAT

A place, an activity or simply a slower pace.

“Add a sentence you want to carry home.”

Small scenes.

01 / Add a short caption.

02 / Add a short caption.

03 / Add a short caption.

04 / Add a short caption.

PLACE / DATE / ONE THING THE PHOTO CANNOT SHOW

03 / FIELD NOTES — DAY 02

02 Finding our rhythm

PLACE / DATE / WEATHER

The small routine we would happily keep.

A MOMENT TO KEEP

Add a short note about the sound, colour or feeling that belongs to this day.

Place / time / who was there

DAY 02 / THE STORY

A slower morning

The part we keep returning to

Write about a moment that stayed with you after the day was over. Give it a setting and a small detail that makes it yours.

It might be a table in the shade, a wrong turn or a conversation that lasted longer than expected.

Then tell the rest of the story in your own words. What did you learn? What changed your plans? What made you laugh?

Keep this space personal. A short, honest memory is enough.

03 / FIELD NOTES — DAY 03

03 Taking the long way

PLACE / DATE / WEATHER

The unplanned stop that became a favourite.

Write a few lines about where the day began, what drew you in, and the detail you would like to remember.

DAY 03 / THE STORY

An unexpected turn

“Give this day its own words.”

Use this page for the story behind the pictures. Describe how the day unfolded, from the first plan to the moment that changed it.

Include a detail that photographs cannot hold: the temperature, a scent, a fragment of conversation or how you felt.

Finish with one thing you would tell your future self about this day. It does not need to be a big lesson; it can be as simple as remembering to look up.

Replace these prompts with your own words.

03 / FIELD NOTES — DAY 04

04 A place to linger

PLACE / DATE / WEATHER

The view, table or street we did not want to leave.

A MOMENT TO KEEP

Add a short note about the sound, colour or feeling that belongs to this day.

Place / time / who was there

DAY 04 / THE STORY

Staying a little longer

Start with a scene.

Describe the place before you explain what happened. What could you hear? Where did the light fall? Who was with you?

Let one ordinary detail lead into the story. Add a conversation, a surprise or a moment that shifted the mood of the day.

DAY 05 / THE STORY

Something new

The part we keep returning to

Write about a moment that stayed with you after the day was over. Give it a setting and a small detail that makes it yours.

It might be a table in the shade, a wrong turn or a conversation that lasted longer than expected.

Then tell the rest of the story in your own words. What did you learn? What changed your plans? What made you laugh?

06 One more look

PLACE / DATE / WEATHER

Place / time / who was there

What we noticed when we knew we were going home.

A MOMENT TO KEEP

Add a short note about the sound, colour or feeling that belongs to this day.

DAY 06 / THE STORY

Before we leave

“Give this day its own words.”

Use this page for the story behind the pictures. Describe how the day unfolded, from the first plan to the moment that changed it.

Include a detail that photographs cannot hold: the temperature, a scent, a fragment of conversation or how you felt.

04 / TASTES & TABLES

At the table.

Some days are remembered by their flavour.

TASTE / PLACE / COMPANY

THE TASTING NOTES

Flavours to remember.

A first sip

Name / place / what made it memorable

Something shared

Name / place / what made it memorable

The local favourite

Name / place / what made it memorable

A sweet ending

Name / place / what made it memorable

ONE GOOD MEAL

A table worth keeping.

WHERE WE ATE

Restaurant / town

WHAT WE ORDERED

Dish / drink / something shared

WHY IT STAYED WITH US

Write about the company, the atmosphere or an unexpected flavour.

More than what was on the plate.

Use the space above for a personal memory, not a restaurant review.

THE LITTLE ADDRESS BOOK

For another visit.

Keep the places you would recommend to a friend.

01 Coffee — Name / neighbourhood

Address or note / add a booking tip if useful

02 Lunch — Name / neighbourhood

Address or note / add a booking tip if useful

05 / THE TRAVEL WARDROBE

What we wore.

Clothes that went places.

The pieces we reached for again and again.

THE CAPSULE EDIT

A small, useful wardrobe.

The everyday layer

The easy top

The walk-all-day pair

The evening piece

The useful bag

The finishing touch

THE OUTFIT NOTES

Two moments, two looks.

Out in the light

Where / what we wore / why it worked

After the sun

Where / what we wore / why it worked

COLOUR & TEXTURE

The colours of our days.

Deep blue

Replace with a colour you noticed and a memory it brings back.

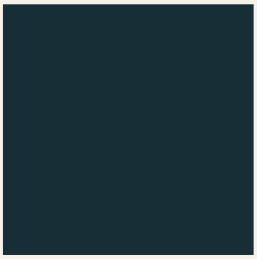

Sun-warmed clay

Replace with a colour you noticed and a memory it brings back.

Soft stone

Replace with a colour you noticed and a memory it brings back.

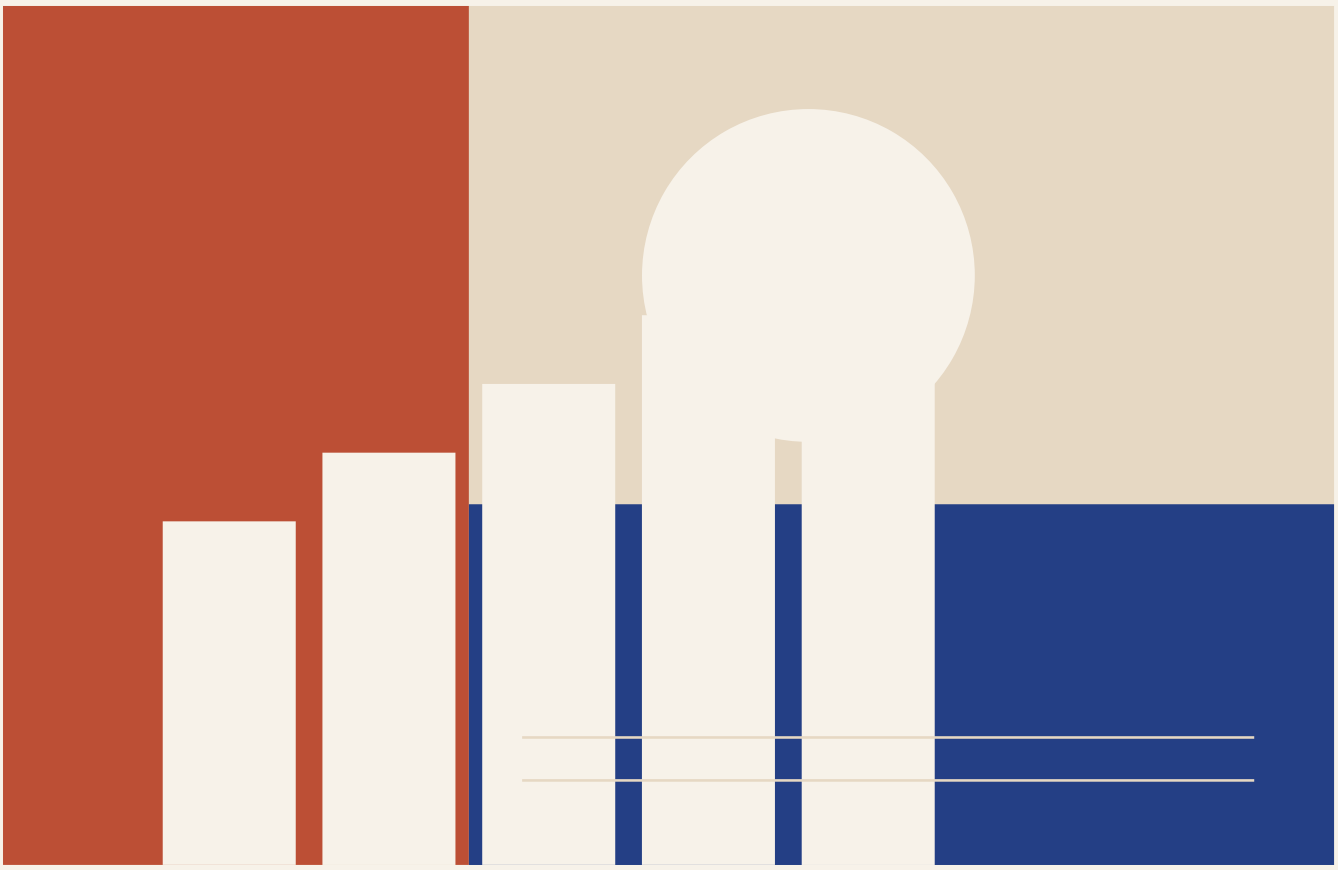

Evening shade

Replace with a colour you noticed and a memory it brings back.

06 / CULTURE & CURIOSITY

Ways of seeing.

Look beyond the landmark.

Keep the everyday details: a doorway, a ritual, a local phrase, a different rhythm of life.

ARCHITECTURE & DETAILS

Look a little closer.

A doorway, a facade or a quiet corner.

What drew your eye? Add the details here.

PLACE / MATERIAL / COLOUR / LIGHT

EVERYDAY RITUALS

A different daily rhythm.

What we noticed

Describe something ordinary that felt new to you: a morning routine, a gathering place or the pace of an evening.

Write from your own experience, with curiosity and care.

What we took home

Was there a habit you wanted to bring into your everyday life?

Use this space for a small personal reflection rather than a general claim about a culture.

HEARD ALONG THE WAY

Words we collected.

01 / WORD OR PHRASE

Your words here.

Meaning / who said it / where we heard it

02 / WORD OR PHRASE

Your words here.

Meaning / who said it / where we heard it

03 / WORD OR PHRASE

Your words here.

Meaning / who said it / where we heard it

04 / WORD OR PHRASE

Your words here.

Meaning / who said it / where we heard it

07 / THE THINGS WE KEPT

Objects with a story.

Small enough to bring home.
Big enough to bring it all back.

OUR PERSONAL ARCHIVE

The little collection.

What / where / why we kept it

What / where / why we kept it

What / where / why we kept it

What / where / why we kept it

What / where / why we kept it

What / where / why we kept it

A CLOSER LOOK

One object, a whole story.

FOUND IN

Place / date / how it came to us

WHAT IT HOLDS

The memory attached to this object

“Add the sentence that explains why it matters.”

TICKETS, NOTES & LITTLE FINDS

Paper traces.

A place for the things we almost threw away.

The ordinary evidence of a good day.

Photograph or scan your keepsakes; remove personal booking details before sharing.

08 / THE PHOTO EDIT

Light, held still.

A few frames. A whole feeling.

THE CONTACT SHEET

Nine frames.

CHOOSE A SEQUENCE: COLOUR, TIME OR FEELING

A VISUAL CONVERSATION

Two sides of the same day.

Near / far. Quiet / busy. Before / after.

Choose a pair of photographs that say more together.

THE ONE WE WOULD FRAME

The frame we would print.

Place / date

A memory in one sentence.

09 / FROM HERE, WITH LOVE

A postcard from here.

TO SOMEONE WE WISH WERE HERE

Dear _____,

Describe this place in a way only you could. Include a small detail, a wish or a moment you would have loved to share.

With love, _____

FOR ANOTHER DAY

A note to our future selves.

When we read this again...

REMEMBER THIS

A scene we never want to forget.

KEEP DOING THIS

Something this journey taught us to make time for.

GO BACK FOR THIS

A reason to return, or a place still waiting.

WRITTEN IN / PLACE • ON / DATE

THE LAST REFLECTION

What stays with us.

The best surprise

Write about something you could not have planned.

The thing we learned

A discovery about a place, each other or ourselves.

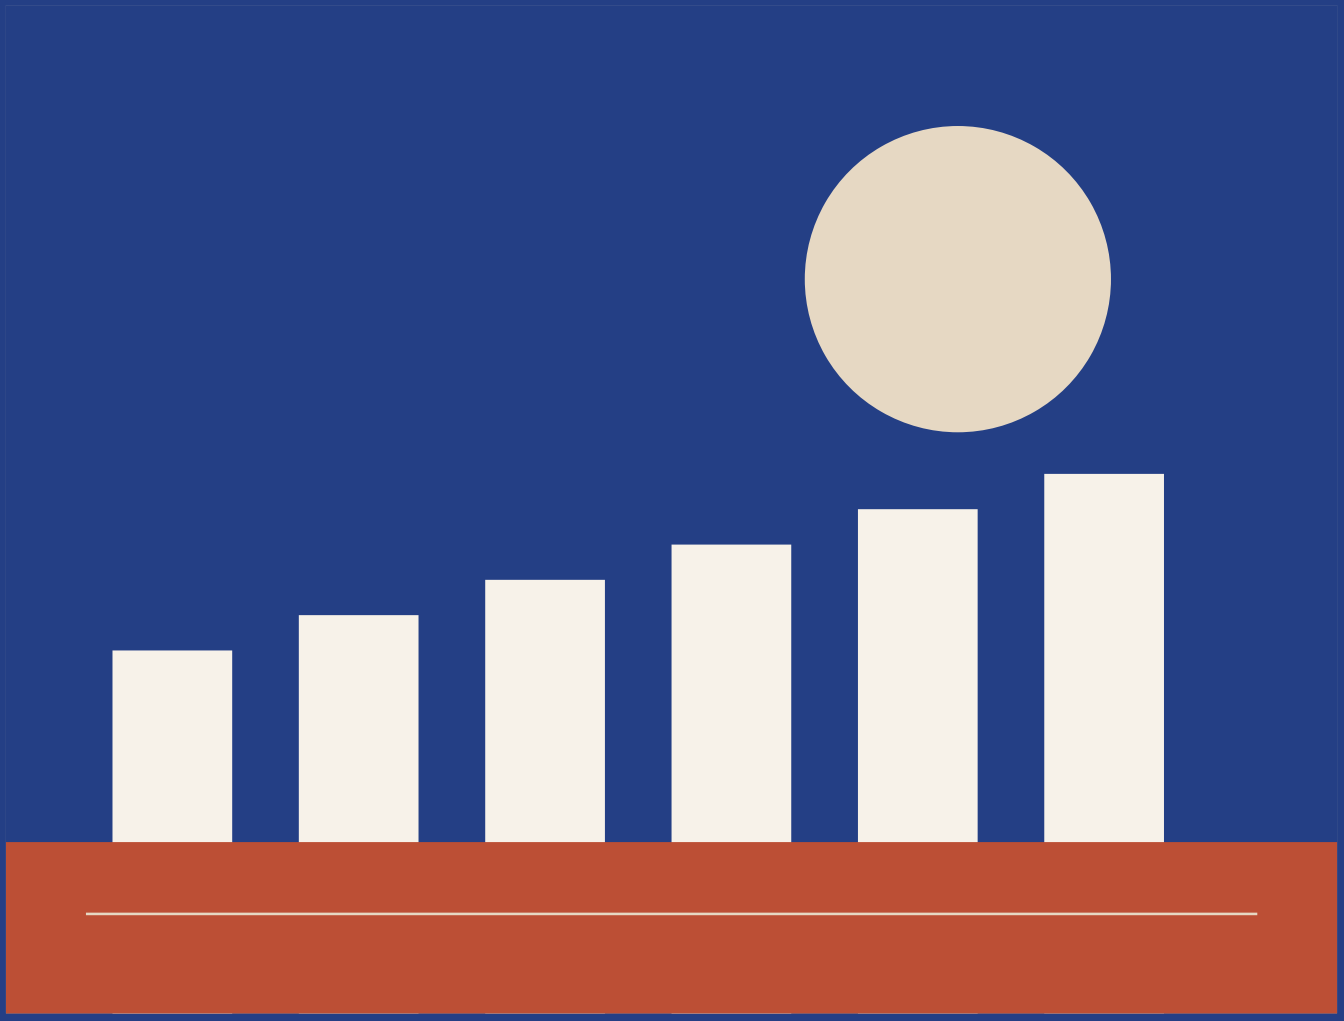

If we could repeat one hour...

Choose a moment and tell the story of why you would return to it.

Until the next chapter.

There is more to see.
For now, there is this to remember.
